

CARE Learning Center

Academic Writing Month 2023

Things I wish I knew...

What is it?

Academic Writing Month is a month dedicated to academic writing. This year, the theme is Things I wish I knew. Participate in CARE Learning Center events to expand and strengthen your academic writing skills.

Monday Handouts

Do you wish you knew more about how to write for school?

Check your PO email on Mondays for handouts on essay structure that you can use to help with your assignments!

Writing Café

Tuesdays @ 6pm PT

Do you wish you had a dedicated space to study and write? During November, you do! Join us in this productive space to write alongside your peers.

In-person: Classroom 10

Zoom: bit.ly/AWM23-CAFE

Wednesday Padlet

What do you wish you knew before you came to PO?

Check out our padlet every Wednesday to share tips and see what others have shared on what they wish they knew!

Writing Support Group

Thursdays @ 12pm PT

Students often say they wish they could learn more about their relationship with writing. Join us for these engaging discussions on studying and writing. Go to the Zoom link below to see the topics for AcWriMo!
